CCTV Fibre Optic Protection

The optic video link consists of a receiver and transmitter unit. Both the units and fibre cables are immune to EMI/RFI, eliminating any need for concern in noisy environments.

Rating: Not Rated Yet

Ask a question about this product

Description

The optic video link consists of a receiver and transmitter unit. Both the units and fibre cables are immune to EMI/RFI, eliminating any need for concern in noisy environments. Our fibre optic transceivers are easy to install and isolate your CCTV systems from lightning damage.

- Colour or B/W video signals transmitted for up to 2km
- Built in automatic gain control
- One video output on receiver